Jesus "the Firstfruits" is resurrected on Sunday the 3rd day, shortly after twilight, having spent three days and nights in the heart of the earth. Very early while still dark Mary Magdalen sees the resurrected Jesus near the tomb but is not permitted to touch Him. However, she touches his feet.		At approximately 9:00 AM the First Fruits Barley is presented to God by a priest at the temple allowing the Barley to be touched, harvested, etc. Jesus, our Great High Priest, presents Himself as the First Fruits of Salvation to God in Heaven's Temple. He is accepted thus permitting all that call upon the Lord to be harvested! In the evening Jesus appears to the Apostles and gives them permission to touch His hand and feet and to look upon His side.
